PROPOSALS

For Publishing, by Subscription,

THE COMPLETE WORKS OF

SIR WALTER SCOTT:

With a Biography: being the first American (and only) edition which contains the Author's last additions and illustrations, arranged upon their respective pages.

A COMPLETE and uniform edition of the various productions of the great 'Minstrel of the North,' is a desideratum with the American public. No library is complete without them, and no edition extant is sufficiently compact for such a repository; while the endless number of editions, without any uniformity in size, heretofore published, besides being exceedingly cumbrous, are far too voluminous and expensive to be within the reach of the great majority of readers. The undersigned therefore announce, that they have now in press, and will issue, an edition of the Works of Sir Walter Scott, which will embrace all his Poems, Novels, Histories, Biographies, and Fugitive Compositions, as well as the Biography and Private Correspondence, now in the course of publication in England, under the superintendence of Mr. Lockhart.

DAILY PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, NOV. 12, 1833.

☞We noticed, in the Butler Repository, that a meeting of the citizens was to be holden at the Court House, last evening, to appoint delegates to the Warren Convention.

THE HARMONIOUS PARTY.—At a meeting of the Jackson men, of the Northern Liberties of Pittsburgh, on the 9th inst., the Anti M'Kean men were denounced in strong language.

We know not how the politicians, around the Mercury office, or the "disorganizers," as they are called, will bear the reprimand which the patriots of Bayardstown have given. It is not easy to predict whether, like the spaniel, they will crouch to the lash, and lick the hand that chastises them, or whether they will make battle. The former course would, no doubt, be most agreeable to the editor of the Mercury, but some of the politicians who hover around that establishment are of a more sturdy cast of character. A man who has assisted in making a president, will not willingly submit to the lash applied by the burgess of a little borough.

For the Gazette.

MR. CRAIG—The Philadelphia Daily Intelligencer, of the 4th inst., speaking of a certain Richard Coulter, and of his claims to the Speaker's chair, in the next Congress, terms him "a DEMOCRAT after the old fashion!!"—I wish to enquire of you if this is the same Richard Coulter who was twice elected to the Legislature of Pennsylvania, from Westmoreland county, on the Federalist ticket—and whether he is the same Richard Coulter, who, when first elected to Congress, in the district composed of the counties of Westmoreland, Indiana, and Jefferson, ran in opposition to James Clarke, the Jackson Democratic candidate—and if aye—do these facts constitute him a "democrat after the old fashion?"

ENQUIRER.

Upon this occasion there is but one Richard Coulter in the field, and he is the one referred to by our correspondent.

Enquirer has his mind so occupied with the recollections of the past, that there remains no room for a knowledge of the things present.—This, however, is not strange; it requires a very capacious mind to comprehend all the mysteries of this new fashioned old democracy.—It suits the purposes of the party, to make Richard Coulter a democrat, and Abner Lacock a federalist; and it is only necessary for a few leaders to say, "let it be so," and strait it is so. A year or two ago, there was a kind of process for dyeing in the wool, but that process is found too tedious, a kind of rough washing answers well enough now, when gullibility is so abundant.—If our correspondent will look about, he will find that three fourths of the old democrats of this day, were old federalists fifteen years ago. For instance, Wm. J. Duane, a democrat all his life, until one month ago, is kicked out of the cabinet, to make room for Taney, a lately made old democrat.

Mechanics' Magazine, and Register of Improvements and Inventions. To the Mechanics of the United States—In this populous and enlightened country, almost every description of persons can obtain knowledge and amusement connected with their peculiar pursuits, through the medium of the Journal or Magazine, especially devoted to their interests. The Theologian, the Farmer, the Philosopher, the Sportsman, and even the Plough Boy has each his Journal, where he can find a record of the passing events of the day, connected with his peculiar avocations and recreations. Hitherto, the Mechanics (who form a large and most important portion of the community) have had no Journal, to which they could turn, with the certainty of finding that information they desire, no periodical of which they could say: 'This is ours, and for us.' In the hope that the attempt to supply such a want at a price so reasonable as to be within the reach of all, will meet with your active support, the subscriber proposes to publish, on the first day of each month, a Mechanics' Magazine. It will contain a well digested selection of the most useful and interesting articles in the London Mechanics' Magazine, London Register of Arts and Sciences, Repertory of Inventions, Library of Useful Knowledge, Journal of the Franklin Institute, and other works, connected with the arts and manufactures, published in this country and in Europe, accompanied with numerous and well executed Engravings. Its pages will be open for the communications of all, and especially for those of the practical artisan, to whose interest it will be particularly devoted. The Mechanics' Magazine will contain, also, a due portion of the occurrences of the month, Scientific and Literary Reviews of Books, Anecdotes, Economical Receipts, Reports of the state of Mechanics' Institutions, and other Scientific Societies in this state and other countries. To be published monthly. Each

From the N. Y. Mercantile Advertiser, of Nov. 8.

By the packet ship Caledonia, Capt. Graham, arrived at an early hour, this morning, we have received our regular files of Liverpool papers, which contain no news of importance.

LONDON, Oct. 1.—The news from Portugal, since our last, amounts to little or nothing. Neither party has surrendered, or seems likely to surrender, and the war may last for many months, though Donna Maria's ultimate triumph appears to be almost certain.

The Duchess de Berri has been captured.

Liverpool Cotton Market, September 30.

The sales of Cotton, on Saturday, were 1,000 bags, and to day, 2,000, of which about 600 are on speculation. The prices are about the same as on Friday.

The Sugar market remained in a depressed state; the sales amount to 430 casks, for which rather lower prices were accepted, but holders in general continue very firm.

From the U. S. Gazette.

From a letter to the editors of the Journal of Commerce, dated London, Sept. 30, 1833, we make the following extract:

"We have a renewal of the infamous system of burnings. Fires are kindling up in several parts of the island, but in Bedfordshire and Bucks, the incendiaries are proceeding in the most open and fearful manner. The destruction of property has been very great; but notwithstanding fair promises and handsome rewards, not a single suspicious person had been arrested. I do not conceive that this diabolical crime is connected with politics, but think it arises entirely from the starving condition of the agricultural laborer, the cruelties of local oppression, and the revengeful disposition which such a system too frequently engenders.—All the Ministry are now in the country, and they will have a good opportunity to enquire into the distress of the peasant, and, perhaps, in the course of the next session, afford him some substantial relief. I have said that the Cabinet are in the country, but I am wrong. Lord Palmerston is left in town, and indeed he has got no sinecure. He is frequently at the foreign office from ten o'clock in the morning, until four the next, and from being a man of fashion has really been converted into a tolerable fag. The U. S. Charge d'Affaires has recently had very frequent and lengthy interviews with the noble lord, which you will find duly chronicled in the Court Circular. The object, I of course cannot pretend to divine; but I have heard that it is relative to the Falkland Island affair.

Rammohun Roy, the celebrated Brahmin, died at Stapleton Grove, near Bristol, a few days ago. He was a very remarkable man, and possessed great acquirements. His religious belief settled down into a kind of Unitarianism.

Mr. Stanley and the Duke of Richmond have narrowly escaped assassination. A Welchman, named Evans, a lunatic, tried to get to them at a public dinner, but on being obstreporous he was taken into custody. A loaded pistol was found upon his person.

In a previous letter, I mentioned the death of Mrs. Hannah More. I am now enabled to give an account of her property, and the legacies which she has bequeathed. She died in possession of about £25,000, the whole of which she acquired by her literary exertion. £10,000 of this sum she has devoted to particular charities, religious societies, and other objects too numerous to mention. Among the list of these benefactions, £100 sterling is to be given to the diocese of Ohio, and an additional £50 for books for the same. £100 are also given to the American Board of Commissioners for foreign missions, for the benefit of the Indians.

In Ireland all is quict. O'Connell has addressed a long, and rather moderate letter to his constituents enumerating his services in Parliament, and proposing a more effective organization for the purpose of abolishing of Tithes. He still talks of the necessity of a domestic Legislature, and calls upon the people of Ireland never to forget that they have once been a nation. The Marquis of Wellesley was sworn on the 26th. His Excellency was most equivocally received. Not a cheer or a hiss assailed his ear. The people are evidently adopting the system of neutrality.

On Saturday, the usual change took place in the city Magistracy. Alderman Farebrother, an auctioneer, has been elected Mayor, and Aldermen Harmer and Wilson, Sheriffs. The former was an old Bailey Attorney, the latter is an architect of some repute. There was not the slightest opposition manifested during any part of the proceedings. Lord Farebrother is a violent conservative. The late Lord Mayor has been exceedingly shabby during the period which he has been in office, not having given the usual number of 'blow outs.' He is openly accused of having saved at least £2,000 out of his salary!

The conference at Munchengratz terminated on the 17th. The Emperor of Austria has arranged to resume the title of Emperor of Germany, with the adjunct, and Protector of Italy.

The Tribune has been both prosecuted and persecuted. Since the elevation of Louis Phillippe, this journal has been seized 82 times, but has only been nine times convicted. The responsible Editor is now in prison, undergoing the sentence of the Chamber of Deputies, for having charged that assembly with being a prostituted body. Upon the present occasion, he was charged with having rather roughly handled the King of the Barricades, and demanding a responsible head to the Council Board. Your unhappy cotemporary was adjudged to an imprisonment of five years, and to pay a fine of 20,000 francs. So much for the liberty of the Press in France! I presume I need not inform you that the responsible Editor is a mere man of straw, a fellow who is purchased at a dollar a week, and who, when in prison, lives in clover. He is much better off there, than in sweeping the crossings of Rue St. Honore, or perhaps getting himself into a scrape by a highway robbery.—These persons are easily procured. You no doubt remember that for a long time, the publisher and Editor of the John Bull was an old woman, who sold apples from a handbarrow at the corner of Fleet street. The above sentence must convince you that there is very little freedom of the Press in France, and that it has not been much improved by the overthrow of Polignac. By the bye, talking of this Ex Premier, reminds me that his daughter has recently expired, owing, it is said, to the impure atmosphere of the country round the fortress of Ham. She was his eldest child, and devotedly attached to her imprisoned parent. The Government refused to allow the Prince to visit her death bed, tho' he offered his parole d'hon. and requested to be accompanied by a guard. The unhappy father has been inconsolable since he heard of the fatal circumstance, and at times quite insensible.

On the 27th the Tribune and National were prosecuted for endeavoring to bring the Royal Family into contempt, but they were both acquitted. Ancona is to be evacuated in the course of the next month, if the Pope should ratify the engagement which has been agreed to by his Minister at Paris.

GREECE.

King Otho has recovered from his last illness, and has opened in person, the general Synod of the Clergy. The day was kept as one of universal rejoicing, and the procession displayed much splendor. The celebrated Chieftain Griva, was pro forma tried and acquitted. He has sent his adhesion to the government and has promised the most powerful support. So has Colocotroni, who has retired to his estate. Several noble Bavarian families who are attached to the King of Greece, have emigrated to his kingdom, and purchased large estates in the neighborhood of the capitol. Great inducements are held out for foreigners of every description to settle in Greece, particularly English agriculturalists, who are offered several important privileges. The King is far from being generally liked, which arises from his great attachment and preference to foreigners.

Spark's Life of Morris.—The Paris Journal des Debats, of the 10th September, contains a review of this work, which, as it declares, has already fixed the attention of Europe. The attention of the reviewer is principally directed to the writings and opinions of Mr. Morris on the subject of the French Revolution. The following view of his character is given by the French writer. The character of his mind was completely American; he was possessed of good sense; a prevailing taste for order and economy; a sternness, not however illiberal, in his judgment of mankind; exemplary patience and consummate prudence. He was, in short, an honest man, endowed with keen sagacity, correct judgment, and a coolness, which served him well on various critical emergencies. He never ran headlong into danger, or sought it for his own sake; but when it came, he braved it with perfect self possession, and without the slightest ostentation; and in this, says the reviewer, he displayed one of the finest traits of the American character.

The Paris Journal des Debats has an excellent article on the usefulness of Internal Improvements (les ameliorations materielles) in diverting the attention and leisure of a people from metaphysical discussions and over jealousy of political rights.—When those ameliorations engage public concern, barren, abstract questions and idle controversies lose proportionably their undue importance and interest; factitious discontents dwindle and fade; men become intent upon solid advantages, and finally wonder how they could have so long neglected the pursuit of them, and indulged so much vain disquisition and groundless alarm.

This result may occur ere long in our Southern States, where the material begins to be considered as scarcely less important than the metaphysical. Our Paris writer recommends that the superabundant activity and heat of the French imagination, and general moral temperament be attracted, as much as possible, to public works—canals, rail roads, manufactures, schools, banks, clearing out rivers, &c. otherwise, he argues, there will necessarily be so much political sophistry, ferment, faction, and wanton discontent, that no government, however free or well intentioned, can endure. In fact, Internal Improvements tend to promote the cause of political and civil liberty, in a degree which may be pronounced a full compensation for any supposed loss or danger by a diversion from political warfare.

Exercising ingenuity and diligence, extending bodily and intellectual activity, affording easy and rapid communications and conveyances, providing objects and recompense for labor, diffusing wealth and personal independence, facilitating all useful enquiries, producing incentives to universal education, giving national power and security, they qualify a nation to understand, enjoy, and preserve free institutions.

The Senate of Rome plunged the Romans into wars, such as those with the Carthagenians, Mithridates, Gaul, as much, it has been conjectured, from the policy of occupying their minds and correcting domestic humors, as from any other motive. This was an immoral alternative, fatal in the end. Widely different is the resource of Internal Improvements, from which no evil can spring, and almost every good be anticipated.—National Gazette.

Bristol and London Railway.—The people of Bristol are going to make a bold effort to restore the prosperity of that once flourishing and still important city; by forming a railway thence to London. It is calculated that this undertaking, which is to be called the Great Western Railway, will cost three millions, to be raised in shares of £100 each. The formation of such a line of communication will be of great utility, not only to Bristol, but to the whole of the west of England, and to the southern counties of Ireland and Wales. The intercourse and traffic along it will be immense. The passengers between London and all parts of the counties of Berks, Wilts, and Gloucester, Hereford, Monmouth, Glamorgan, Somerset, Devonshire, Cornwall, and a very large portion of those from the south of Ireland will travel along it.—Amongst the cities and towns it will touch, or be likely to be united with, by branch roads, are Windsor, Oxford, Reading, Newbury, Salisbury, Marlborough, Bath, Bristol, Glaucester, and Merthyr Tidvil, whilst all other travelers proceeding to London from Bridgewater, Taunton, Exeter, Plymouth, Falmouth, and the other towns of the west will avail themselves of it from Bristol to the metropolis. The Irish counties principally benefitted will be those lying to the south of Dublin. Amongst the most important articles in the carrying department will be the agricultural produce of Berks and Wiltshire, the woollen manufactures of Gloucester and Somersetshire, the iron and coal of South Wales, the West India and other produce imported into Bristol, and the corn and cattle of Wexford, Waterford, Cork, &c. When the railway is formed, of which there is little doubt, Bristol will be one of the greatest thoroughfares in the British dominions.

From the N. Y. Spectator.

The Voice of Experience.—The editor of the Evening Star inveighs strongly against the wide prevailing thirst for office in this country, and among other words of truth and soberness, utters the following:

"There is an evil which is now spreading far and wide over our country, and threatens the most injurious consequences to the real independence of our citizens; we allude to the vast number of applicants for office. Those who have managed to seize the reins of power, are unwearied in their exertions to make converts by holding forth inducements for men to join their party, and as soon as they are chained to the cars, all hope of liberty and independence is lost. If a man is unfortunate in business, instead of throwing himself on his own resources, and by renewed industry and energy regaining his lost ground, he is advised to ask for an office, and you see him a supplicant at the door of some influential person, or a hanger on at ward hotels, an active partisan at the polls, or a declaimer at public meetings. Should he be so unfortunate as to succeed, he puts on livery, and becomes the vassal of some ambitious leader, or the humble follower of some strong or influential person; he is in constant terror of losing his office by the treachery of his own friends; but, should he succeed in holding it for a few years, some change takes place in the administration, and he is turned out, poor, aged, and helpless; the talent, ability, and industry necessary for comfort and competence, he has exchanged for a public station, which passes from him probably to some unworthy object. It is better to open oysters, and to wheel a wheel barrow, and earn a half loaf of bread by honest labor, than to be reduced to the miserable uncertainty of holding an office. He must play false to get it, and surrender manly independence to obtain it."

The Tariff.—Seventeen years ago, the people of the East were as much opposed to the Tariff as are the people of the South at the present moment; and we anticipate, with great confidence, that before half that number of years shall be added to past time, the latter will be, to the full, as zealous advocates of the protective system as the former. It was in their own defence that our eastern brethren established manufactories. Curtailed in their commerce by the high protective duties, they employed their disengaged capital in domestic manufactures, until they now rival the oldest nations in the beauty and utility of their fabrics. The people of Virginia and Georgia are doing precisely the same thing; and the time is not distant, when we shall find them petitioning Congress to do, what they have been, for some years past, anxious for them to undo. So goes the world!—Washington Examiner.

Descendant of Oliver Cromwell.—In the vicinity of a town on the Hudson river, Mr. Finch happened to come in contact with a lineal descendant of Oliver Cromwell. History makes mention that the Protector's daughter was married to Fleetwood, Secretary under Cromwell, and that, on the death of the latter, he and his family went over to America, and resided in the island of Nassau, near New York. They afterwards moved up the Hudson, and settled on a fine tract of land, where the descendant was found by Mr. Finch. He seemed to be in the possession of all the comforts of life, without ever inheriting any of the ambition of his ancestor. His house was built in a valley, and he never went to the polls to vote. He had a farm of 500 acres, which he cultivated, and talked with much animation about his flocks of merino sheep, and acres of Indian corn. "I asked him why he did not attempt to become Governor of the State; but he replied, he was contented with his lot."

We understand, says the Washington (D.C.) Examiner, that orders have been issued at the Navy Department, for the immediate equipment of the United States' Frigate Brandywine, now lying in ordinary at the New York Navy Yard. Her destination is said to be the Pacific, and that, on her arrival in that sea, Commodore Wadsworth, Commandant on that station, will transfer his broad pennant to her.

Portugal.—As there have been some speculation both in the American and English journals, on the subject of an attack on Lisbon, on the 14th Sept. last, we have seen a letter dated Lisbon, 14th Sept., which contains the following passage:—"There was an attack, this morning, in three different points, but the rebels were, as they ever have been, repulsed. We have not the details as yet."—N. Y. Courier.

Libels.—W. L. Garrison has been arrested in Connecticut on five writs, for as many libels on the characters of individuals in Canterbury. The offensive language appeared in the Liberator before its Editor visited England, and efforts to prosecute were made at the time, without being able to arrest Garrison. Sufficient surety has been given for his appearance at the County Court to be holden at Brooklyn in December, and the prisoner discharged.—Traveller.

The Washington Telegraph, of Wednesday last, says—"We have heard that the arrangement is to buy up Colonel R. M. Johnson, with a tender of the Vice Presidentship."

The whole amount of subscriptions obtained thus far, in New York, to the Colonization Society's Fund, by a recent resolution, exceeds $3,000.

The Washington Globe will be enlarged on the first of the next month—when it will be published on a sheet 38 1-2 by 24 1-2 inches.—Amer. Sent.

Prosperity of Buffalo.—The Journal, of Wednesday, contains a cheering review of the growth of the young city of the west. Large blocks of first rate brick stores have been erected the current season, on that part of Main street, not long since desolated by fire, and on Cheapside, opposite—and also further up Main street to the Kremlin.—Four houses of public worship have also been commenced, and in the process of erection, besides the new Light House, and many other stores and houses in various parts of it—all giving strong indication that Buffalo will, ere long, be classed among the most populous and thriving cities of the Union.—N. Y. Com. Adv.

Loss of the Peruvian.—We learn that this boat, on her voyage for New Orleans, about twenty miles below Natchez, struck against a snag and sunk. She had a valuable cargo. The Bravo fell in with her, and took off some of her deck load, and left her, a foot under water, and her bow and stern still deeper, with the river rising.—Cincinnati Advertiser.

Mr. Buchanan.—The papers announce that Mr. Buchanan, our Minister to the Court of St. Petersburg, is on his way to the U. States, on a visit. We suspect the visit will be a long one. All his baggage—the goods and chattels of his household—has arrived in this port in advance of the Minister. The truth is, Mr. Buchanan has quit the Russian Capital for good. Young Mr. Clay is again left as Charge, and there will now be another opportunity for the President to give a snug job to some other favorite who has grown weary of living upon his wits, or some other "modern incompetence."—N. Y. Com. Adv.

Fatal Accident.—It is with pain that we make a record of an accident upon the Camden and Amboy rail road.

Yesterday, about noon, the wheel of one the cars on this rout broke, and as a part remained on the track, the wheel of the next car encountered the piece, and the concussion threw the car off the track, and caused it to overset—by which accident, Mr. J. C. Stedman, of North Carolina, was killed; Mrs. Bartlett and child very much injured; Mr. Dreyfous, of this city, much hurt; Capt. Vanderbelt injured considerably; Dr. West had his leg broken, and several other persons, making in all ten or twelve, suffered more or less.

The Hon. John Q. Adams was in the car which lost its wheel.

The accident took place about three miles from Hightstown.

The Rev. Dr. West, whose leg was broken, suffered a simple fracture below the knee. Dr. J. K. Mitchell set the limb, and authorizes us to say that Dr. W. is doing well, and there is no doubt of his rapid recovery.

The Rev. Dr. W. is pastor of the Episcopal church in Newport, R. I.—U. S. Gaz.

THE HEART IS FIXED—HEB. xii. 1.

The heart is fixed, and fixed the eye,
And I am girded for the race:
The Lord is strong, and I rely
On his assisting grace,
Race for the swift—it must be run;
A prize laid up—it must be won.

And I have tarried longer now
(Pleased with scenes of time,)
Than fitteth those who hope to go
To Heaven, that holy clime;
We hope to pluck the fruit that grows
Where the immortal river flows.

The atmosphere of earth—Oh, how
It hath bedimmed the eye!
And quenched the spirt's fervent glow,
And stayed the purpose high;
And how these feet have gone astray,
That should have walked the narrow way!

Race for the swift—I must away,
With foot step firm and free;
Ye pleasures that invite my stay,
And cares, are naught to me;
For, lo! it gleameth on my eye,
The glory of that upper sky.

"A prize laid up"—said he that fought
That holy fight of old,
"Laid up in Heaven for me, yet not
For me alone that crown of gold
But all who wait till thou appear,
Savior, the diadem shall wear."

Patiently wait—so help thou me,
O meek and holy One,
That dim although to vision be,
The race I still may run;
This eye thus lifted to the skies,
This heart thus burning for the prize.

THE MARKET.

Ashes maintain their prices, and pots are a shade higher. The news from Europe has further reduced the price of Cotton ½ ct. per lb.: the sales are about equal to the receipts, wholly to manufacturers: for three days there have been sold 750 Upland at 14½ a 15 cts. for old, and 15 a 15 1-2 for new Norn. and 16 cts. for S. Carolina and Georgia. Mackerel are at fully last week's quotations. Flour is quite as well, as are grains of all sorts. The holders of flax seed are inclined to keep out of market for the present; and so are the buyers we believe. Provisions firm.

Fairbanks' Platform Scales.

THESE scales are constructed upon an improved principle; are fitted up with great care by the manufacturers, and warranted to weigh with accuracy from half a pound to 12,000. Being placed in, and forming part of, the floor, the process of weighing is performed with ease and facility, while the space they occupy may be improved as a passage way or for other purposes.

The construction of these scales is such that they are little liable to derangement of wear, and their perfect operation will be guaranteed for any reasonable length of time.

The usual objection, that a new method of weighing cannot be safely entrusted to unskilful hands, is obviated by the use of the improved BALANCE, concerning which are the following remarks in the Journal of the Franklin Institute, of the state of Pennsylvania, for the promotion of the Mechanic Arts, for June, 1833. (Edited by Thos. P. Jones, M. D., late Superintendent of the Patent Office, at Washington, Professor of Mechanics in the Franklin Institute, &c.

"The Messrs. Fairbanks, some time since, obtained a patent for a Platform Weighing Machine, and this mode of adjuating and graduating the Beam of the Balance, and the weights, was devised by them with a view to its employment with the before mentioned machine. We have had an opportunity of examining one of their balances, and have been much pleased with it: this examination, however, was not necessary to the conviction that it possesses a just claim to the character of a real improvement, the whole arrangement being so simple as to enable any person to perceive that it is well adapted to the purpose contemplated, that of facilitating the business of weighing, and more especially of heavy articles."

The subscriber, as Agent, will receive orders for the above Scales, which will be made in this city to order. They can be seen at his Warehouse, No. 84, Front street.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

THE Subscribers, Trustees of the New Philadelphia Society, at Phillipsburgh, Beaver county, Pennsylvania, offer for sale the following property, to wit:

1	tract of land	containing	330 acres
1	do	do	330
1	do	do	67
1	do	do	7
1	do	do	40
other lots, containing about			6

The above lands lie in one body, fronting about two miles upon the Ohio river—immediately opposite the mouth of Big Beaver creek, and the Beaver Division of the Pennsylvania Canal. The land is rich, and a part of it under a high state of cultivation—its location pleasant and healthy. The improvements upon the same are valuable, including the town of Phillipsburgh, late the residence of Count Leon, and the New Philadelphia Society. The town contains about 40 Dwelling Houses, now in order; some of them brick houses and two stories high. A large and spacious Hotel, a Store house, Church, a number of Shops, for mechanics, Stables, Barns, and other out houses. Also, two large new buildings, lately erected, but not yet finished, one of brick, the other of frame (the latter suitable for a manufactory) a very extensive public garden, and also fruit trees of various kinds. The property has also attached to it the right of a ferry across the Ohio, which is valuable, and becoming more so every day.

The above property is situated in the midst of a wealthy and prosperous country, distant about 28 miles below Pittsburgh, and one mile from Beaver, the seat of justice for Beaver county—and having a view for many miles up and down the Ohio, and of the country to a great distance around.

The subscribers are confident in saying that few situations could be found, presenting greater facilities to the farmer, mechanic, the manufacturer, and others—a soil rich and productive—the neighborhood abounding in coal—well timbered and watered, and, by means of the Pennsylvania Canal, and steamboat navigation, a cheap and ready conveyance to market, and a communication with other places is ensured.

The property is susceptible of divisions into farms, or for the location of new towns, or for the extension of the present one.

Should it not be sold on or before the first day of January next, it will then be offered at public sale, upon the premises, to the highest and best bidder.

It will be sold in a body, or in parcels, to suit purchasers.

Terms of sale will be reasonable.

Information can be had by enquiring of the subscribers, two of whom live in the neighborhood, and one on the premises.

AMERICAN RAILROAD JOURNAL, and Advocate of Internal Improvements, which is designed as a repository of the accounts of the rise and progress of numerous works of Internal Improvement, in the United States particularly, and in other parts of the world generally. The work is published weekly, and forms a large octavo volume each year, of 832 pages of 3 columns each, for $3 per annum, in advance.

New York Farmer, and American Gardener's Magazine. This work is designed for the agriculturist, and will be found to contain much, both interesting and profitable, to those who cultivate the soil as a business, or merely a garden for amusement. Published in monthly parts of 32 large octavo pages, with three columns each, at $3 per annum, in advance.

Mechanics' Magazine, and Register of Improvements and Inventions. To the Mechanics of the United States—In this populous and enlightened country, almost every description of persons can obtain knowledge and amusement connected with their peculiar pursuits, through the medium of the Journal or Magazine, especially devoted to their interests. The Theologian, the Farmer, the Philosopher, the Sportsman, and even the Plough Boy, has each his Journal, where he can find a record of the passing events of the day, connected with his peculiar avocations and recreations. Hitherto, the Mechanics (who form a large and most important portion of the community) have had no Journal, to which they could turn, with the certainty of finding that information they desire, no periodical of which they could say: 'This is ours, and for us.' In the hope that the attempt to supply such a want at a price so reasonable as to be within the reach of all, will meet with your active support, the subscriber proposes to publish, on the first day of each month, a Mechanics' Magazine. It will contain a well digested selection of the most useful and interesting articles in the London Mechanics' Magazine, London Register of Arts and Sciences, Repertory of Inventions, Library of Useful Knowledge, Journal of the Franklin Institute, and other works, connected with the arts and manufactures, published in this country and in Europe, accompanied with numerous and well executed Engravings. Its pages will be open for the communications of all, and especially for those of the practical artisan, to whose interest it will be particularly devoted. The Mechanics' Magazine will contain, also, a due portion of the occurrences of the month, Scientific and Literary Reviews of Books, Anecdotes, Economical Receipts, Reports of the state of Mechanics' Institutions, and other Scientific Societies in this state and other countries. To be published monthly. Each succeeding number will contain 64 pages, handsomely printed, and stitched in a neat cover. Six numbers will form a volume, for which an index and title page will be supplied, and also a Portrait of some distinguished Mechanic, as a Frontispiece. Terms, $3 per annum, in advance.

DOCTOR ROBERT'S

☞ WELCH MEDICAMENTUM. ☜

FOR the cure of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints Jaundice, Cholic, Fever and Ague, Dysentery, Headach, Loss of Appetite, Flatulence, Hypochondria, Hysterics, Dropsical Complaints, and Heartburn. It also prevents all Bilious disorders, and removes habitual Costiveness, Asthma, Strangury, Gravel, Rheumatism, Gout, and Impurities of the Blood.

A person who uses this Medicamentum will not require the use of the lancet, or any means of the healing art. It restores and revives the animal spirits, invigorates the system, removes nervous tremors, obtunds rheumatic and anthritic pains, and prevents their return. It cleanses the stomach of all morbid humors, which cause indigestion, acidities, headach, and lowness of spirits; cures all bilious disorders, and all cholics of the stomach and bowels, almost immediately; inspires cheerfulness; gives comfort to the dropsical; takes away palpitation of the heart; gives circulation to the blood; restores bloom to the sallow or sickly cheek, and plumpness to the meagre habit; purges without pain, and banishes all cause of fever of every kind. It acts on the stomach, that great reservoir of the human system, a diseased state of which causes all diseases. No alteration in the usual habits of life is required, but the abstaining from distilled ardent spirits.

CERTIFICATE,

From Rev. Derick Lansing, D. D., Pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church in Utica.

Utica, Jan. 6, 1830.

To Dr. Hitchcock.—Dear Sir: I have always been one of the number of those who have placed little confidence in nostrums or specifics, and for this reason, although I saw your advertisement of the Welch Medicamentum, I could not bring my mind to consent to use it. My sufferings, from indigestion, during the past summer, were so severe, as materially to affect my comfort, and my capacity for usefulness. I have reason to thank you, sir, that, on hearing of the state of my health, you kindly sent me your Medicamentum. I have taken it faithfully, and with entire success. I have not been visited with one of those turns of distress, which before were weekly periodical, since I began to take your valuable medicine. Could I receive the same relief which I have hitherto experienced, on condition of taking it for life, I should cheerfully comply with such condition. Your's, very truly, D. C. LANSING.

ANTI-DYSPEPTIC ELIXER.

ONE of the most agreeable and efficacious Medicines ever discovered for the permanent cure of those chronic states of derangement of the stomach, constituting that miserable disease called Dyspepsia.

The basis of this Elixer s vegetables, and perfectly innocent in its operation; it destroys that sour state of the stomach, the instant it is taken, and stops the morbid secretion, by giving strength to the muscular fibre of that important organ, by which means the peristaltic motion of the intestines is increased, and the costiveness obviated; a new action is given to the system, which puts an end to a train of distressing nervous sensations.

Another form of the disease in which the Elixer is admirably calculated to relieve, is the decline of fever, where the stomach will not bear the ordinary strengthening medicines indicated in such cases, it has the surprising effect of giving vigor, and restoring the natural secretions of the body, without increasing the febrile state. Not the least danger is to be apprehended from exposure to cold, while under the use of this medicine, nor will it interrupt necessary employment of the patient a single hour.

☞ A number of cases of cures performed by the Anti-Dyspeptic Elixer in the vicinity of Pittsburgh can be given.

GEO. W. CARPENTER'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF LIVERWORT,

A SAFE and Valuable Medicine for Coughs, Spitting of Blood, Consumption, and Liver Complaints.

Most of the medicines made use of for the above diseases are of a stimulating nature, composed generally of Resins and Balsams, in alcoholic solutions, which, although sometimes giving temporary relief, in almost every instance where they are freely used, aggravate the disease, and reduce the strength of the patient.

This article possesses superior advantages over these preparations, its action being of a tonic, invigorating and strengthening nature, thus overcoming the disease by promoting expectoration, and gradually increasing the strength of the patient, and thus, without being attended with any unpleasant effects: it also agrees with the stomach, in a cases, and is a pleasant medicine to take.

Rights to use the machine in that part of the United States, named above, will be sold by the single county or in larger districts. As it is presumed that no one will purchase without seeing the machine at work, a description of it is deemed unnecessary. Should any person, however, wish to purchase, and find it inconvenient to visit the places where it is in operation, a machine will be furnished, warranted to plane, tongue and groove, and bring to an exact width and thickness, a white pine board of 12 feet long, and of any width from 1 to 14 inches, in one minute and ten seconds, or an oak board of the same dimensions in 2 minutes and 10 seconds. Machines may be seen at work in the cities of New Orleans, Washington, Philadelphia, New York, Boston, and others at the south and east, at Wheeling, Virginia, and at the saw mill of Messrs. Irwin & Heron, in this city.

Persons desiring to purchase will have the certificates of scientific and practical men who have seen it at work, in the different places in which it has been put up, forwarded to them. They give their opinion as to the great value of the invention, state the time they have seen boards dressed by this machine, and describe the quality of the work as compared with that performed by hand labor.
